

Smith Mountain Arts Council Board Meeting Minutes

JUNE 15, 2018, 9:30 a.m., Trinity Parrish

Board members present: Karen DeBord, Kathy Orth, Joe Yarbrough, Will Nocera, Larry Sakayama, Marty Bowers, Frank Lea.

Kathy Orth, President noted that in the absence of a quorum, the meeting would only be informational. No voting occurred.

- Susan McSlarrow was welcomed as a guest interested in assisting with SMAC public relations.
- Marty shared a financial report of profits and losses but will develop a more detailed one for the next Board meeting.
- JAM- changing locations from Essex to Gereau Center. They have hired 2 new instructors from Floyd.
- Discussion about having a collaboration show between Lakeside Singers and Lake Players with writing input from Lake Writers. Karen will ask Nancy and Ann what they think of the idea.
- Will would like to see photos from this year's events so he can pick and choose photos for the brochure for the coming year.
- Joe reported that he hopes to line up coffee house entertainment by Fall for the 2019 coffee houses. Joe has organized the equipment and tools for the sound and stage parts and pieces.
- The next newsletter submissions should be sent to Peter as soon as possible for the July newsletter. Kathy will ask Peter to remove email addresses from the newsletter to see if that helps with the SCAM SPAM.
- Two scholarship recipients were presented. Both are art majors. Names: Kenna Thacker (Gretna) and Gabriel Shires (Staunton River).
